

Short CV

	MAGULOVA, Katarina
	Programme Officer
	Secretariat of the Basel, Rotterdam and Stockholm Convention
	United Nations Environment Programme
	Katarina is working as Programme Officer since May 2006. She coordinates effectiveness evaluation of the Stockholm Convention under Article 16, including management of world-wide implementation of the Global Monitoring Plan for persistent organic pollutants (POPs). She is also managing the programme on minimization or elimination of unintentional releases of POPs under Article 5 of the Stockholm Convention, including source inventories and release estimates, as well as best available techniques / best environmental practices (BAT&BEP). Also before her work was focusing on the scientific and technical aspects of environment protection. She worked as national expert in a governmental agency from 1991-2002, and as freelance consultant from 2002 to 2006. Katarina has Slovak nationality and holds a master's degree in chemistry.